DETAILED ACTION

1. All outstanding rejections, except for those maintained below, are withdrawn in light of applicants' amendment/remarks filed on 05/01/2009.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.
3. No new grounds of rejection are set forth below. Thus, the following action is properly made final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jonas et al. (US 2002/0173579) in view of Admitted Prior Art (Page 6, Paragraph 10 of the specification) or Wessling et al. (US 5,567,355).

The rejection is adequately set forth in Pages 2-4 of Office action mailed on 02/02/2009 and is incorporated here by reference.

Response to Arguments

5. The applicants' remarks filed 05/01/2009 are fully considered but are not found persuasive. Specifically, the applicants argue that Jonas fails to teach the inventive deionizing step by the passing liquid and relies on Example 1 of Jonas as support (see Page 2 of the Applicants' Remarks).

Art Unit: 1796

However, Jonas et al. disclose a process for the preparation of dispersions or solutions suitable for the production of rechargeable batteries, light-emitting diodes, electrochromic windows, cathode ray tubes, and antistatic coatings (Paragraphs 1, 3, and 82). The process involves 1) preparing an aqueous suspension containing polythiophene+An-Ion complex (polythiophene+ is a polymer), which is subjected to both anion and cation exchangers (method of deionization), and membrane method, such as ultrafiltration, 2) adding an organic solvent, such as N-methylpyrrolidone, alcohols, and ethers, to the aqueous suspension, 3) at least some of the water is removed from the resultant mixture, and 3) the mixture can be further diluted with other types of organic solvents, including aliphatic alcohols, e.g. n-propanol or isopropanol, and aliphatic ketones (see Paragraphs 34-50, 74, 78, 84 and 91). Moreover, step 1) of Jonas et al. involves anion and cation exchangers and then water is added, which is eventually removed. This method corresponds to the claimed deionizing step. Thus, those skilled in the art would have predicted the inventive method and the effect thereof from the disclosure of the cited references. In addition, the example pointed out by the applicants is not limited to the prior art of Jonas.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
